

Kelly Kimball:

Rev. Kelly J. Kimball is the Managing Director of Matthew 25 International, where he has served full-time since 2021. He has been involved in full-time ministry since 1993 and was ordained in 1997. His ministry journey has included more than 15 years of youth ministry, 7 years as an Associate Pastor, and 5 years with the Louisiana Assemblies of God State Office as an administrator and events coordinator for all departments. Through these roles, Kelly has combined pastoral leadership, event organization, and a heart for people to advance the Kingdom of God in diverse settings.

Today, Kelly work's with Matthew 25 International reflects his lifelong passion for equipping the Church and reaching the lost with the hope of Christ. He and his wife, Christine, have been married since 1994 and share two children, Nathaniel Kimball and Paige Cornell, along with their son-in-law, Trenton Cornell.

Christine Kimball:

Christine has been a teacher at Covenant Christian Academy in Houma, Louisiana, for the past 17 years. Throughout her career, she has poured her heart into the classroom, encouraging students to grow not only academically but also spiritually. Her passion for teaching comes from a desire to help young people discover their God-given potential and to inspire them to live with purpose and faith.

In addition to her work at Covenant Christian Academy, Christine serves in ministry alongside her husband. She has been in full time ministry as music minister, kids pastor, and other programs to help lead other kids & adults to the Lord. Together, they are committed to sharing the love of Christ, mentoring others, and supporting the spiritual growth of their community. Whether in the classroom or through ministry, she strives to be a light for Christ, finding joy in walking faithfully in the calling God has placed on her life.
